

COUNTRY MUSIC + HILLBILLY HISTORY

Crook Farm – 5pm Sat. Nov 16, 2019

Location: Crook Farm 476 Seaward Ave. Bradford, PA 16701

COUNTRY MUSIC: (Concert @ 7:30pm) Brett Howland

“America’s Gatekeeper of Traditional Music,”
FIDDLER, BANJOIST, GUITAR PICKER, & SONGSTER-
Most importantly he is a true entertainer. You’ll hear
Songs & Stories from the pioneers of Country Music:
Jimmie Rodgers, Uncle Dave Macon, the Carter Family,
Fiddlin’ John Carson & More.

HILLBILLY HISTORY: (Workshop @ 6pm)

Hillbilly History - Brett Howland & Allen Hopkins, multi-instrumentalists with long backgrounds in traditional American country music, will lead an unrehearsed, open-ended discussion and demonstration of the styles, subjects, and performers of “hillbilly” music 1920-1950. Expect to hear bluegrass, old-timey, gospel, Appalachian balladry, and other styles, with accompaniment on guitar, banjo, fiddle, mandolin, Autoharp, harmonica, and who knows what else. Audience participation is encouraged; bring, voices, questions, comments and bad banjo jokes.

POTLUCK WORKSHOP CONCERT

5:00 PM - Potluck sponsored by the Landmark Society. The society will provide Chicken, Pizza, Coffee & Water. Please bring Side dishes or Desserts. 6:00 - 7:00 PM – Workshop / Hillbilly History

7:30 - 9:30 PM – Brett Howland Concert Min. Suggested Donation - $10

Crook Farm (bank bldg) 476 Seaward Ave Bradford, PA (814) 368-4057 howard@blumenthals.com for more info

Sponsored by Bradford Landmark & Southern Tier Country Dance Society

